(4) The requirements of subs. (1) and (2) shall not apply to any investment adviser that has its principal office in a state other than this state, provided that the investment adviser is registered in that state and is in compliance with that state's minimum net capital requirements, if any.

DFI-Sec 5.035 Investment advisors with custody.

(1) Except as provided in sub. (2), and subject to the definitions in sub. (4), it shall be a prohibited business practice for an investment adviser registered, or required to be registered, to have custody of client funds or securities unless the investment adviser complies with all of the following:

(a) The investment adviser notifies the division promptly in writing on Form ADV that the investment adviser has or may have custody.

Note: Form ADV is available online at the website of the Investment Adviser Registration Depository, www.iard.com, and may be filled out and submitted electronically.

(b) A qualified custodian maintains the funds and securities in a separate account for each client under that client's name or in accounts that contain only client funds and securities, under the investment adviser's name as agent or trustee for the clients.

(c) When an investment adviser opens an account with a qualified custodian on a client's behalf, either under the client's name or under the investment adviser's name as agent, the investment adviser shall notify the client in writing of the qualified custodian's name, address, and the manner in which the funds or securities are maintained, promptly when the account is opened and following any changes to this information.

(d) Account statements shall be sent to clients in compliance with one of the following:

1. If client funds or securities are held by a qualified custodian, the investment adviser shall have a reasonable basis for believing that the qualified custodian sends an account statement, at least quarterly, to each client for which it maintains funds or securities, identifying the amount of funds and of each security in the account at the end of the period and setting forth all transactions in the account during that period.

2. If client funds or securities are held by the adviser:

a. The investment adviser shall send an account statement, at least quarterly, to each client for whom the investment adviser has custody of funds or securities, identifying the amount of funds and of each security of which the investment adviser has custody at the end of the period and setting forth all transactions during that period; and

b. The investment adviser shall engage an independent certified public accountant to verify all client funds and securities by actual examination at least once during each calendar year at a time chosen by the accountant without prior notice or announcement to the adviser and that is irregular from year to year. The accountant shall file a copy of the special examination report with the division within 30 days after the completion of the examination, stating that it has examined the funds and securities and describing the nature and extent of the examination; and

c. Within one business day of the finding of any material discrepancies identified during the course of the examination under subd. 2. b., the accountant shall notify the division of the discrepancy by means of a facsimile transmission or electronic mail, followed by first class mail, directed to the division.

3. DFI-Sec 5.05 Practice and advisory contract rules.

(1) Each investment adviser shall establish written supervisory procedures and a system for applying the procedures, which may reasonably be expected to prevent and detect any violations of ch. 551, Stats., and rules and orders thereunder. The procedures shall include the designation and registration of a number of supervisory employees reasonable in relation to the number of its registered investment adviser representatives, offices and activities in this state.

(2) An investment adviser shall not enter, extend, or renew any investment advisory contract if the contract:

(a) Provides for compensation to the investment adviser on the basis of a share of capital gains upon, or capital appreciation of, the funds or any portion of the funds of a client other than a person specified in s. 551.403 (2), Stats., or s. DFI-Sec 5.13.

(b) Fails to provide, in substance, that no assignment of the contract may be made without the consent of the client; or

(c) Fails to provide, in substance, that the investment adviser, if a partnership, shall notify the other party to the contract of any change in the membership of the partnership within a reasonable time after such change.

(d) Fails to disclose, in substance, the term of the advisory agreement, the fee to be charged by the adviser, the formula for computing the advisory fee, the formula for computing the amount of prepaid fee to be returned in the event of contract termination or non-performance, and whether the contract grants discretionary power to the adviser.

(3) Subsection (2) (a) shall not prohibit an investment advisory contract which provides for compensation based upon the total value of a fund averaged over a definite period, or as of definite dates or taken as of a definite date. "Assignment," as used in sub. (2) (b) includes any direct or indirect transfer or hypothecation of an investment advisory contract by the assignor or of a controlling block of the assignor's outstanding voting securities by a security holder of the assignor; but, if the investment adviser is a partnership, no assignment of an investment advisory contract is considered to result from the death or withdrawal of a minority of the members of the investment adviser having only a minority interest in the business of the investment adviser, or from the admission to the investment advisor of one or more members who, after admission, will be only a minority of the members and will have only a minority interest in the business. As used in sub. (2), "investment advisory contract" means any contract or agreement whereby a person agrees to act as investment adviser or to manage any investment or trading account for a person other than persons specified under s. 551.403 (2), Stats., or s. DFI-Sec 5.12.

(4) An investment adviser shall not enter any contract with a client if the contract contains any condition, stipulation or provision binding the client to waive any rights under ch. 551, Stats., or any rule or order thereunder. Any such condition, stipulation or provision is void.

(5) No registered investment adviser may enter into, extend or renew any investment advisory contract with a client in this state unless the contract is in writing and a copy of the contract is given to the client within 20 days after the execution of the contract.

(6) Each investment adviser who renders account supervisory or management services shall provide at least annually to each Wisconsin client a written summary of the client's account which includes information setting forth the name, quantity and market value of each security under management, and the total value of cash and securities under management.

(7) Every registered investment adviser shall employ at its principal office or designated office of supervision in accordance with s. DFI-Sec 5.03 (1), at least one person designated in writing on the form prescribed in s. DFI-Sec 9.01 (1) (b) and filed with the division to act in a supervisory capacity who is registered as an investment adviser representative in this state and has satisfied the supervisory examination requirement in s. DFI-Sec 5.01 (5). If a registered investment adviser is not in compliance with the requirements of this paragraph, it has 45 days from the first date of noncompliance to meet the requirements of this paragraph.

(8) (a) Unless otherwise provided in this subsection, each investment adviser shall furnish to each client and prospective client a firm brochure and one or more supplements as required by this subsection. The brochure and any required supplement shall contain all information required by Part 2 of Form ADV and such other information as the division may require.

(b) 1. Each investment adviser shall furnish the current brochure required by this section, and the current brochure supplement for each investment adviser representative who will provide advisory services, to a client or prospective client.

2. For purposes of this subsection, an investment adviser representative is deemed to provide advisory services for a client if the investment adviser representative does any of the following:

- a. Regularly communicates investment advice to that client.
- b. Formulates investment advice for assets of that client.
- c. Makes discretionary investment decisions for assets of that client.

d. Solicits, offers or negotiates for the sale of or sells investment advisory services.

3. The documents required in subd. 1. shall be furnished at the following times:

a. Not less than 48 hours prior to entering into any investment advisory contract with a client or prospective client.

b. At the time of entering into any contract, if the contract specifically provides that the client has a right to terminate the contract without penalty within five business days after entering into the contract.

(c) Each investment adviser shall, at least once a year, without charge, furnish or offer in writing to furnish to each of its clients the current brochure and any current brochure supplements required by par. (a). If a client accepts the written offer, the investment adviser shall send to that client the current brochure and supplements not later than 7 days after the investment adviser is notified of the acceptance.

(d) If the adviser is the general partner of a limited partnership, the manager of a limited liability company, or the trustee of a trust, then for purposes of this subsection, the investment adviser shall treat each of the partnership's limited partners, the company's members, or the trust's beneficial owners as a separate client. For purposes of this subsection, a limited liability partnership or limited liability limited partnership is also considered to be a limited partnership.

(e) 1. Each investment adviser that is a sponsor of a wrap fee program shall furnish to a client or prospective client in lieu of the brochure required in par. (b), a wrap fee brochure containing all information required by Form ADV. All information in a wrap fee brochure shall be limited to information applicable to wrap fee programs that the investment adviser sponsors.

2. An investment adviser is not required to offer or furnish the wrap fee brochure if another sponsor of the wrap fee program offers or furnishes to the client or prospective client of the wrap fee program a wrap fee program brochure containing all the information that the investment adviser's wrap fee program brochure must contain.

3. A wrap fee brochure shall not be used in place of any brochure supplement that the investment adviser is required to furnish under par. (b) 1.

(f) Each investment adviser shall amend its brochure and any brochure supplement and deliver the amendments to clients not more than 30 days from the date that the information contained in the brochure or brochure supplement becomes materially inaccurate. The investment adviser shall comply with the instructions to Part 2 of Form ADV regarding updating and delivery.

(g) Each investment adviser that renders substantially different types of investment advisory services to different clients may provide them with different brochures, provided that each client receives all applicable information about services and fees. The brochure furnished to a client may omit any information required by Part 2 of Form ADV if such information is applicable to only a type of investment advisory service or fee that is not rendered or charged, or proposed to be rendered or charged, to that client or prospective client.

(h) Nothing in this subsection shall relieve any investment adviser from any obligation pursuant to any provision of ch. 551, Stats., or other federal or state law to disclose any information to its clients or prospective clients not specifically required by this rule.

(9) Each investment adviser that participates in a wrap fee arrangement with a broker-dealer shall disclose to each client under the arrangement the portion of the wrap fee that is attributable to advisory services. This requirement may be satisfied if the information is contained in the brochure provided to the client either by the investment adviser or the sponsor of the wrap fee arrangement.

(10) No investment adviser may associate with a bank, savings institution, trust company, savings and loan association or credit union by contract, agreement or other means for the purpose of that entity publishing or circulating advertising promoting the services offered by the investment adviser or assisting or providing information to persons to establish an advisory relationship with the investment adviser unless the promotional functions are performed by persons registered as representatives of the investment adviser.

(11) Each investment adviser which by contract, agreement or other means provides investment advisory services on the premises of a financial institution that is not registered as an investment adviser shall:

(a) Perform the investment advisory services within a specific area on the premises of the financial institution designated by agreement between the investment adviser and the financial institution. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the financial institution from carrying out other activities within the designated area, provided that no promotional signs or materials shall be displayed within the designated area other than those relating to the investment advisory services;

(b) Prominently display the identity of the registered investment adviser in the area on the premises of the financial institution designated under par. (a);

(c) Disclose the identity of the registered investment adviser in, without limitation because of enumeration, all advertising, correspondence, business cards, promotional materials and records relating to the investment adviser's services provided on the premises of the financial institution. Materials described in this paragraph may not display the financial institution's name or logotype in a manner that would mislead clients as to the financial institution's role in connection with the investment advisory services being offered by the investment adviser. For purposes of this paragraph, if the investment adviser's name is no less prominent in the materials than the name of the financial institution in the size, style or color of type or in the placement or by use of logotypes, the materials are presumed to be not misleading.

(d) Establish written supervisory procedures and a system for applying the procedures. The procedures shall comply with s. DFI-Sec 5.05 (1) and shall be designed to accomplish certain supervisory functions, including but not limited to the following:

1. Prevention and detection of violations of ch. 551, Stats., and any applicable rules and orders under ch. 551, Stats.

2. Establishment of a system under which the investment adviser approves, prior to use, copies of all advertising used by the financial institution relating to the investment advisory services conducted on the premises of the financial institution for the purpose of ensuring compliance with ss. 551.501, 551.502 and 551.504, Stats.; and

3. Establishment of a system that ensures that all books and records required by rule or order under ch. 551, Stats., are properly maintained.

(e) Disclose in writing prior to or at the time of entering into each investment advisory agreement that the investment advisory services are provided by the investment adviser and not by the financial institution, that non-deposit investment products are not guaranteed by the financial institution, are not deposits or other obligations of the financial institution, are not subject to any federal deposit insurance protection and involve risk, including possible loss of principal.

(f) Notify the division at the time of filing notice of opening or change of address of a branch office as required in s. DFI-Sec 5.04 (5), that the office is located on the premises of a financial institution in this state, which notification shall include the identity of the institution.

(12) No investment adviser or its investment adviser representative, in connection with a telephone or electronic solicitation, shall:

(a) Fail to provide both the caller's identity and the identity of the investment adviser with whom the caller is affiliated, at the beginning of any telephone or electronic solicitation.

(b) Telephone any person in this state between the hours of 9:00 PM and 8:00 AM local time at the called person's location without the individual's prior consent.

(c) Telephone or electronically solicit any person in this state after that individual has requested that they not be telephoned.

(d) Make repeated telephone or electronic solicitations in an annoying, abusive or harassing manner, either individually or in concert with others.

(e) Use threats, intimidation or obscene language in connection with securities recommendations, transactions or other investment advisory activities.

(13) Each investment adviser shall provide clients with a written notification or invoice of fees due for investment advisory services. The notification or invoice shall specify the time period covered by the fee for ongoing supervisory or management services or shall detail the services rendered for preparation of financial plans or analyses.

(14) Any person entering into or performing an investment advisory contract under this rule is not relieved of any obligations under ch. 551, Stats., or rules thereunder.

DFI-Sec 5.06 Prohibited conduct. Except as otherwise provided in sub. (13), the following are deemed “dishonest or unethical business practices” or “taking unfair advantage of a client” by an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative under s. 551.412 (4) (m), Stats., without limiting those terms to the practices specified in this section:

(1) Exercising any discretionary power in placing an order for the purchase or sale of securities for the account of a client without first obtaining written discretionary authority from the client unless the discretionary power relates solely to the price at which, or the time when, an order involving a definite amount of a specified security shall be executed, or both.

(2) Placing an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client upon instructions of a third party without first having obtained written third party trading authorization from the client;

(3) Inducing trading in a client’s account that is excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources and character of the account;

(4) Recommending to a client the purchase, sale or exchange of any security without reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation is suitable for the client on the basis of information furnished by the client after reasonable inquiry concerning the client’s investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and any other information known by the investment adviser;

(5) Placing an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client without authority to do so;

(6) Borrowing money or securities from, or lending money or securities to, a client, unless that client is a financial institution or institutional investor designated in s. 551.401 (2) (b) or (c), Stats.

(7) Misrepresenting to any client, or prospective client, the qualifications of the investment adviser, investment adviser representative, federal covered investment adviser, or any employee, or person affiliated with the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser, or misrepresenting the nature of the advisory services being offered or fees to be charged for such service, or to omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made regarding qualifications, services or fees, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

(8) Placing an order for the purchase or sale of a security if the security is not registered or the security or transaction is not exempt from registration under ch. 551, Stats.

(9) Placing an order for a client, or recommending that the client place an order, to purchase or sell a security through a broker-dealer or agent not registered under ch. 551, Stats., unless the client is a person described in s. 551.403 (2) (a), Stats., or s. DFI-Sec 5.12.

(10) Recommending to a client that the client engage the services of a broker-dealer, agent or investment adviser not registered under ch. 551, Stats., unless the client is a person described in s. 551.403 (2) (a), Stats., or s. DFI-Sec 5.12.

(11) Failing accurately to describe or disclose in advertising or other materials used in connection with the promotion or transaction of investment advisory services in this state, the identity of the investment adviser or the nature of the investment advisory services offered or the employment relationship between the investment adviser and its representatives. For purposes of this subsection, “other materials” include, but are not limited to, business cards, business stationery and display signs.

(12) Taking or having custody of client funds or securities without being in compliance with s. DFI-Sec 5.035 and the net worth requirement in s. DFI-Sec 5.02 (2).

(13) The subsections of this section shall apply to an investment adviser representative of a federal covered investment adviser only to the extent permitted by section 203 (b) (2) of the investment advisers act of 1940, and only to the extent the prohibited conduct involves fraud or deceit.

(14) Providing a report or recommendation to any client prepared by someone other than the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser without disclosing that fact. This prohibition does not apply to a situation where the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser uses published research reports or statistical analyses to render advice or where an investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser orders such a report in the normal course of providing service.

(15) Charging a client an unreasonable fee.

(16) Failing to disclose to clients in writing before any advice is rendered any material conflict of interest relating to the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser, or any of its employees, or affiliated persons which could reasonably be expected to impair the rendering of unbiased and objective advice including but not limited to:

(a) Compensation arrangements connected with investment advisory services to clients which are in addition to compensation from such clients for such services; and

(b) Charging a client an investment advisory fee for rendering investment advice when compensation for effecting securities transactions pursuant to such advice will be received by the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser or its employees, or affiliated persons.

(17) (a) While acting as principal for its own advisory account, to knowingly sell any security to or purchase any security from a client, or while acting as broker-dealer for a person other than the client, to knowingly effect any sale or purchase of any security for the account of the client, without disclosing to the client in writing before the completion of the transaction the capacity in which it is acting and obtaining the consent of the client to the transaction.

(b) The prohibitions of this subsection shall not apply to any transaction with a client of a broker-dealer if the broker-dealer is not acting as an investment adviser in relation to the transaction.

(c) The prohibitions of this subsection shall not apply to any transaction with a client of a broker-dealer if the broker-dealer acts as an investment adviser solely:

1. By means of publicly distributed written materials or publicly made oral statements;

2. By means of written materials or oral statements not purporting to meet the objectives or needs of specific individuals or accounts;

3. Through the issuance of statistical information containing no expressions of opinion as to the investment merits of a particular security; or

4. Any combination of the foregoing services.

(d) Publicly distributed written materials or publicly made oral statements shall disclose that, if the purchaser of the advisory communication uses the investment adviser's services in connection with the sale or purchase of a security which is a subject of the communication, the investment adviser may act as principal for its own account or as agent for another person. Compliance by the investment adviser with the foregoing disclosure requirement shall not relieve it of any other disclosure obligations under ch. 551, Stats.

(e) In this subsection:

1. "Publicly distributed written materials" means written materials which are distributed to 35 or more persons who pay for those materials.

2. "Publicly made oral statements" means oral statements made simultaneously to 35 or more persons who pay for access to those statements.

(18) Guaranteeing a client that a specific result will be achieved with advice rendered.

(19) Publishing, circulating or distributing any advertisement which directly or indirectly does any one of the following:

(a) Refers to any testimonial of any kind concerning the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser, or concerning any advice, analysis, report, or other service rendered by such investment adviser or investment adviser representative.

(b) Refers to past specific recommendations of the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser that were or would have been profitable to any person; except that an investment adviser or investment adviser representative may furnish or offer to furnish a list of all recommendations made by the investment adviser, investment adviser representative or federal covered investment adviser within the immediately preceding period of not less than one year if the advertisement or list also includes both of the following:

1. The name of each security recommended, the date and nature of each recommendation, the market price at that time, the price at which the recommendation was to be acted upon, and the most recently available market price of each such security.

2. A legend on the first page in prominent print or type that states that the reader should not assume that recommendations made in the future will be profitable or will equal the performance of the securities in the list.

(c) Represents that any graph, chart, formula, or other device being offered can in and of itself be used to determine which securities to buy or sell, or when to buy or sell them; or which represents, directly or indirectly, that any graph, chart, formula, or other device being offered will assist any person in making that person's own decisions as to which securities to buy or sell, or when to buy or sell them, without prominently disclosing in such advertisement the limitations thereof and the difficulties with respect to its use.

(d) Represents that any report, analysis, or other service will be furnished for free or without charge, unless such report, analysis, or other service actually is or will be furnished entirely free and without any direct or indirect condition or obligation.

(e) Represents that the division has approved any advertisement.

(f) Contains any untrue statement of a material fact, or that is otherwise false or misleading.

(g) In this subsection, the term "advertisement" includes any notice, circular, letter, or other written communication addressed to more than one person, or any notice or other announcement in any electronic or paper publication, by radio or television, or by any medium, that offers any one of the following:

1. Any analysis, report, or publication concerning securities.

2. Any analysis, report, or publication that is to be used in making any determination as to when to buy or sell any security or which security to buy or sell.

3. Any graph, chart, formula, or other device to be used in making any determination as to when to buy or sell any security, or which security to buy or sell.

4. Any other investment advisory service with regard to securities.

(20) Making, in the solicitation of clients, any untrue statement of a material fact, or omitting to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

(21) Failing to establish, maintain, and enforce written policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent the misuse of material nonpublic information contrary to the provisions of Section 204A of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

(22) Disclosing the identity, investments, or other financial information of any client or former client unless required by law to do so, or unless consented to by the client.

(23) Engaging in conduct or any act, indirectly or through or by any other person, which would be unlawful for such person to do directly under ch. 551, Stats., or any rule thereunder.

(24) Using any term or abbreviation thereof in a manner that misleadingly states or implies that a person has special expertise, certification, or training in financial planning, including the misleading use of a senior-specific certification or designation as set forth in ch. DFI-Sec 10.

(25) Paying a cash fee or any other economic benefit, directly or indirectly, in connection with solicitation activities unless the requirements of pars. (a) through (d) are met.

(b) The cash fee or any other economic benefit is paid by the investment adviser with respect to solicitation activities that are impersonal in nature in that they are provided solely by means of:

1. Written material or oral statements which do not purport to meet the objectives or needs of the specific client; or

2. Statistical information containing no expressions of opinions as to the merits of particular securities or investment advisers; or

3. Any combination of the foregoing services.

(c) The cash fee or any other economic benefit is paid pursuant to a written agreement to which the investment adviser is a party and all of the following conditions are met:

1. The written agreement;

a. Describes the solicitation or referral activities to be engaged in by the solicitor on behalf of the investment adviser and the cash fee or any other economic benefit to be received for such activities; and

b. Contains an undertaking by the solicitor to perform its duties under the agreement in a manner consistent with the instructions of the investment adviser and the provisions of ch. 551, Stats., and rules there under; and

c. Requires that the solicitor, at the time of any solicitation or referral activities for which a cash fee or any other economic benefit is paid or to be paid by the investment adviser, provide the client with a current copy of the investment adviser's disclosure document.

ment required under s. DFI-Sec 5.05 (8) and a separate disclosure statement as described in par. (d), either in paper or electronic format; and

2. The investment adviser receives from the client, prior to or at the time of entering into any written investment advisory contract, a signed and dated acknowledgement of receipt of the investment adviser's written disclosure statement and the solicitor's written disclosure document; and

3. The investment adviser makes a bona fide effort and has a reasonable basis for believing that the solicitor has complied with the agreement; and

4. The requirements in subs. 1., 2. and 3. shall not apply if the solicitor is any of the following:

a. A partner, officer, director or employee of such investment adviser; or

b. A partner, officer, director or employee of a person that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such investment adviser, provided the status of the solicitor is disclosed to the client at the time of the solicitation or referral.

(d) The separate written disclosure document required to be furnished by the solicitor to the client pursuant to par. (c) 1. c. shall contain the following information:

1. The name of the solicitor;

2. The name of the investment adviser;

3. The nature of the relationship, including any affiliation, between the solicitor and the investment adviser;

4. A statement that the solicitor will be compensated for solicitation or referral services by the investment adviser;

5. The terms of the compensation arrangement including a description of the cash fee or any other economic benefit paid or to be paid to the solicitor; and

6. The amount of compensation the client will pay, if any, in addition to the advisory fees, and whether the cash fee or any other economic benefit paid to the solicitor will be added to the advisory fee, creating a differential with respect to the amount charged to other advisory clients who are not subject to the solicitor compensation arrangement.

(e) Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to relieve any person of any fiduciary or other obligation to which such person may be subject under any law.
